CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE CITY SCHOOL.—Parents' Day, Wednesday, May 18. Every one is invited. Parents' Day means a day for the visiting of the school by all the patrons, and they should set aside one day in which to see the work of their children. I would like to see every parent of the children now in the city school at the exercises.

Thursday evening, May 18, entertainment, consisting of plays, music, drills, etc., by the High School.

Closing entertainment Friday evening. The young folks will play some of the best plays we have ever had both nights. The proceeds of the entertainments on Thursday and Friday evenings are to help pay for our new piano.

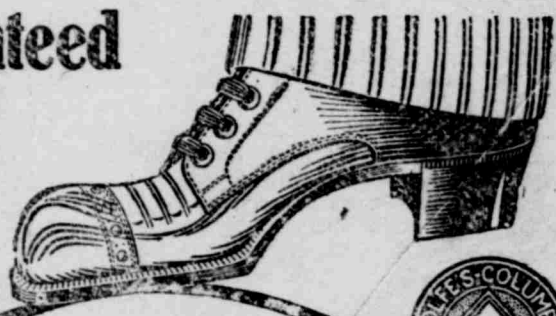

We solicit your assistance. C. F. MARTIN, Supt. City Schools.

DOCK RAGLAND DEAD.—John ("Dock") Ragland died April 22 at Salem, Ind. He was aged 61 years. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Lou Wilson, of Ladoga, Ind., and three children: Mrs. Carrie Mansfield, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Nora Saunders, of Detroit; and Edgar, who is traveling salesman for a wholesale millinery house, of Indianapolis.

"Dock" Ragland was born and reared on upper Slate creek, this county, and was a son of the elder James Ragland. He went from here to Ladoga, Ind., and resided in that State the balance of his life. Mrs. Delia Moore, of Mayview, Mo., is the only surviving one of James Ragland's children, Thomas Ragland having died in Lexington some years ago.

CIRCUIT CLERK APPOINTED.—Oscar B. Brother has been appointed Circuit Clerk to succeed the late John W. Dawson, his father-in-law, by Judge Allie W. Young. He will hold until the office is filled by election in November, 1911, as by law an election for such an office can not be held when a Congressional is held.
